

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

CONTENT

• Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

Let's review!

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information about travel and vacations in social situations.

Ask your partner:

- Do you like to send text messages? Why or why not?
- What do you talk about in text messages?

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about travel and transport.
- I can talk about what people do and what people are doing.
- I can talk about different places.
- I can ask what, when, where questions.

Let's Explore!

John and Sally are texting each other. Hey, what's up?

* To "text" a person means to send a message on your telephone.

 "What's up?" means how are you? In a text message, they often write it like this: Wassup?

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

John: Hey, Sally! What's up?

Sally: I'm great! I'm coming back from Stonehenge. It's an outdoor prehistoric structure made of 30 huge stones. They built it with no technology.

John: How did they do that?

Sally: I don't know. It's a very famous mystery.

John: How far is it from London?

Sally: It's about 90 miles away, or 145 kilometers. It's a very interesting excursion to Stonehenge.

John: Where are you now?

Sally: I'm on a bus. I'm going back to London. We go straight on this road for about 1 hour. Then we turn right at an intersection.

John: The cruise ship is heading to Guatemala. We stop there, then we go to Belize. Where are you going next?

Sally: I'm going to the Salzburg Festival in Austria.

John: Awesome!

Let's Practice!

Sally and John send messages on their phone. What do they say?

Instructions: Write the sentences in the correct category.

- | | |
|------------------------------|--|
| 1) I'm going back to London. | a) The cruise ship is heading to Guatemala. |
| 2) I don't understand it. | b) We go straight on this road for about 1 hour. |
| 3) It's very famous. | c) Where are you going next? |

Present Continuous Tense

Simple Present Tense

Let's Practice!

John and Sally ask questions. What do they ask?

*Instructions: Correctly complete the sentences. Use Why / When / How / What's / Where.

John: _____ up?

Sally: Not much!

John: _____ far is it?

Sally: It's 90 miles from London.

John: _____ are you now?

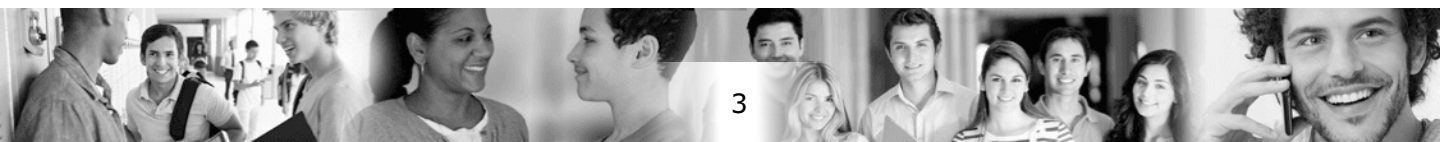

Sally: I'm on a bus.

John: _____ did they do that?

Sally: I don't know. It's a famous mystery.

Sally: _____ are you leaving?

John: Tomorrow.

Extension Activity

Many people use short forms of words when they send text messages, like Wassup? Let's look at how people write text messages.

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Do a search online for words and expressions people use in texting.
- Write a list of 20 words and expressions. For each one, explain what it means using normal words.
- Write a funny text message conversation using the short forms.
- Practice reading the dialogue with a partner.

Self-Assessment

Yes No

I identify 20 short forms of words or expressions online.

☐ ☐

I write the meanings of short forms used in conversations.

☐ ☐

I write a text message conversation using short forms.

☐ ☐

I practice the dialogue with a partner.

☐ ☐

Target Words

- picture (noun): photograph
e.g. If you want to take a few more pictures, please feel free.
- prehistoric (adjective): dating from the time before writing e.g. Stonehenge is the most famous prehistoric monument in the world.
- stone (noun): material that comes from the ground
e.g. What kind of stones are they?
- excursion (noun): a short trip
e.g. It's a 10-hour excursion to Stonehenge.
- famous (adjective): many people know about it
e.g. Not too far from there is Tower Bridge, a very famous bridge.
- technology (noun): ideas and equipment to improve the way we live e.g. Ancient people built huge monuments with very little technology.

Learning Points

Prepositions of Place

When you say where things are, you use prepositions of place like along, through, across, on, at, inside, outside or around.

Preposition	Use	Example
in	a room, a city	See the fine antique furniture and works of art in the State Rooms?
on	a street, a river bank	The museum is on the south bank.
through	a open area, like a park or a market	You can walk through the market.
across	a street, a river	The bridge goes across the River Thames.
inside	a building	That means the Queen is inside the building.
outside	a building	Did you notice the Royal Standard outside the palace?
around	outside a building	You can see the beautiful 40-acre garden and lake around the palace.
along	beside a path or a river	I loved walking along the River Thames.

Near - Far

You can use the adjectives near, close and far to say the distance of one thing or place to another.

Near and close have the same meaning. Far has the opposite meaning.

The expression too far means something is very far in a negative way.

Examples:

- How far is it?
It's about 10 miles away.
It's about 40-minute walk.
That's too far to walk.
The Underground is close.

