Let's Start!

Let's go on an excursion!

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information about travel and vacations in social situations.

Ask your partner:

- Would you like to go on a 10-hour excursion? Why or why not?
- Which place would you want to visit? Why?

Can Do Statements

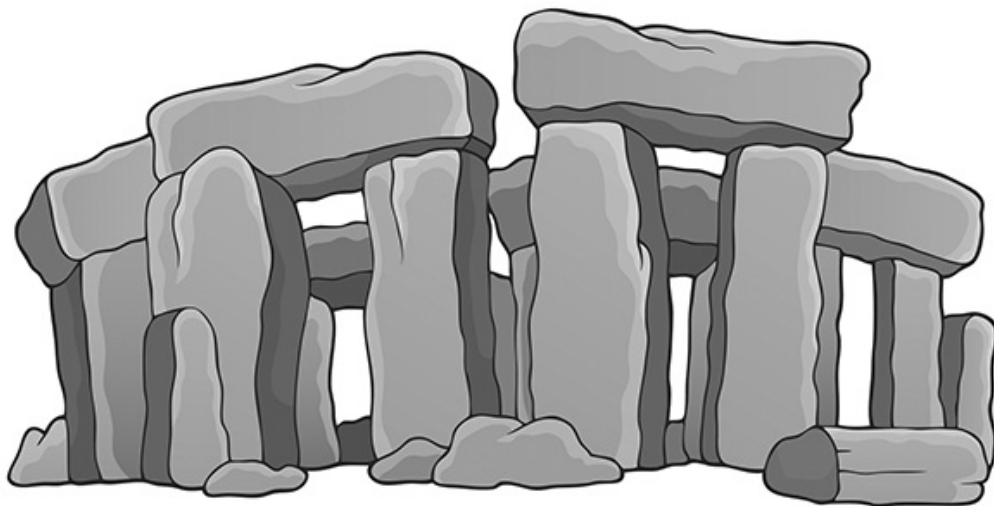

- I can talk about what people do and what people are doing.
- I can ask what, when, where questions.
- I can talk about things to do on a trip.

Let's Explore!

Sally wants to go to Stonehenge!

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Tour Operator: British Discoveries ... the place to discover Great Britain! What do you want to discover?
- Sally: Hello. I'm thinking about going to Stonehenge.
- Tour Operator: Excellent choice! Ancient people built huge monuments with very little technology. It's a real mystery.
- Sally: How far is it?
- Tour Operator: Stonehenge is about 90 miles from the center of London. Where are you staying?
- Sally: My hotel is near the London Eye.
- Tour Operator: We provide round-trip bus transportation from Waterloo Station.
- Sally: How much does it cost?
- Tour Operator: Only 80 pounds.
- Sally: How long is the trip?
- Tour Operator: It's an 10-hour excursion.
- Sally: What does the tour include?
- Tour Operator: We take you to the Roman town of Bath and the beautiful Windsor Castle. Both of them are on the way.
- Sally : That sounds great!

Learning Points

Present Simple vs. Present Continuous Tenses

Present Simple Tense

You use the Present Simple tense to:

- talk about a routine action or specific action that happens regularly
- say a general truth
- give personal information

You can use expressions of frequency like every day or always with the Present Simple.

Present Continuous Tense

You form the Present Continuous with the verb to be + verb-ing.

You use the Present Continuous tense to talk about:

- a current event or action happening around now
- events that are going to happen soon (future plans)

You can use expressions like right now or later with the Present Continuous.
