Let's Start!

I have a question!

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information about travel and vacations in social situations.

Ask your partner:

- When you visit a new place, what do you like to see?
- What do you like to ask questions about?

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about places and attractions.
- I can ask what, when, where questions.
- I can ask for and make suggestions.

Let's Explore!

Sally is on a tour of Stonehenge. What does she learn about it?

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Guide: Please feel free to ask questions!

Sally: What does Stonehenge mean?

Guide: The word means "hanging stones." Look in this direction. Do you see how they seem to be hanging in the air?

Sally: What kind of stones are they?

Guide: They're called "blue stones" from Wales, about 200 miles away. Imagine that! These ancient people did not use the wheel.

Sally: Why are they called blue stones?

Guide: They look blue when they are cut or broken. Take a close look. Do you see small specks of blue in the stone?

Sally: Are there other places like Stonehenge?

Guide: Oh, yes. In the British Isles, there are at least 900 other places like Stonehenge. You could visit many of them. Why don't you sign up for another excursion?

Let's Practice!

The tour guide gives many suggestions.

Instructions: Select all the correct answers.

1. Which sentences give a suggestion by using an Imperative?

- a. Take a close look.
- b. We could go to Buckingham Palace.
- c. Look in this direction.
- d. Please feel free to ask questions!
- e. You could visit many of those sites.

2. Which sentences give a suggestion by using a Wh-question?

- a. Why don't you sign up for another excursion?
- b. What kind of stones are they?
- c. Are there other places like Stonehenge?
- d. Why are they called blue stones?
- e. How about going on a tour of Scotland?

Let's Practice!

The tour guide is talking about the stones of Stonehenge.

Instructions: Choose the correct answer to complete the sentence. Use one of the words in the brackets.

1. _____ (When / What) does Stonehenge mean?
2. _____ (When / What kind) of stones are they?
3. _____ (Why / What) are they called blue stones?

Asking and Making Suggestions

You can ask for a suggestion with a question:

- Do you have any suggestions?
- What do you suggest?

Suggestions can be made in many different ways. Here are some:

You can use the Imperative form:

- Take a close look.
- Look in this direction.
- Please feel free to ask questions!

You can use a modal, like can or could:

- You could visit many of those sites.
- We could go to Buckingham Palace.

You can use a Wh- question:

- Why don't you sign up for another excursion?
- How about going on a tour of Scotland?

You can use the word let's:

- Let's go to the gift shop.
