Let's Start!

Let's take a tour!

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information about directions to places in a limited range of social situations.

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about things in a building.
- I can tell someone where something is located.
- I can give orders and/or instructions.

Ask your partner:

- Where can you take a tour in your town or city?
- Is it a good tour? Why or why not?

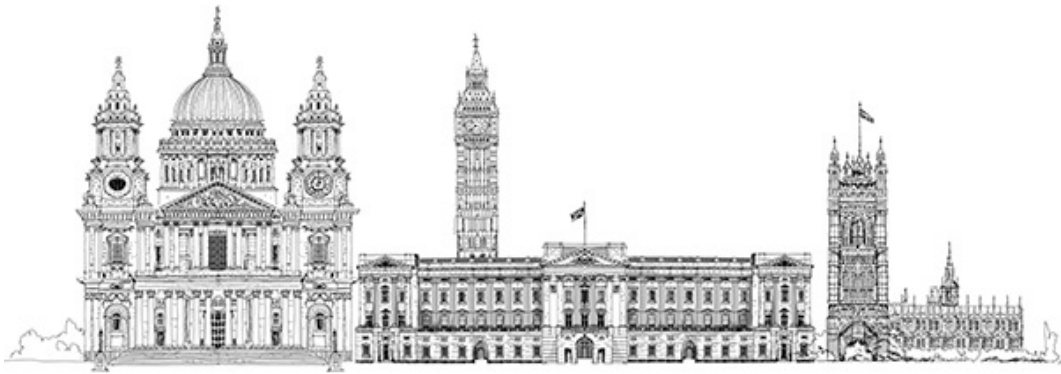

Let's Explore!

Sally is on a tour of the State Rooms at Buckingham Palace.

* "State" is another word for country.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Good morning! I'm your tour guide, Jean. Join us as we explore the famous State Rooms of Buckingham Palace. Buckingham Palace is the Queen's official residence in London. Notice the Royal Standard outside the palace. That means the Queen is inside the building. Look out the window. You can see the beautiful 40-acre garden and lake around the palace. See the fine antique furniture and works of art in the State Rooms. They're from the Royal Collection.

This is the Throne Room. Imagine you were here a hundred years ago. It would look the same. We are now going to visit the Silk Tapestry Room. After that, we're going to visit the State Dining Room. Kings and queens dined here for centuries.

Let's Practice!

See the Royal Standard outside the palace?

Instructions: Choose the correct answer to complete the sentence. Use one of the words in the brackets.

1. Buckingham Palace is the Queen's official residence _____ (at / in / on) London.
2. See the fine antique furniture and works of art _____ (it / on / in) the State Rooms.
3. Did you notice the Royal Standard _____ (around / outside / from) the palace?
4. That means the Queen is _____ (inside / on / at) the building.
5. You can see the beautiful 40-acre garden and lake _____ (on / in / around) the palace.

Let's Practice!
